

North Central Texas Council of Governments

TO: Local Government Officials

DATE: April 10, 2024

FROM: Mike Eastland
Executive Director

SUBJECT: Nominations for NCTCOG's William J. Pitstick Award

In 1992, Bill Pitstick retired from the Council of Governments after serving 26 years as its first Executive Director. To honor his long tenure and his dedicated professional service to the North Central Texas region, NCTCOG established the William J. Pitstick Award in 1993. This award, presented annually, is intended to recognize an outstanding individual from the 16-county North Central Texas region, who has demonstrated a commitment to the concept of "regionalism" by demonstrating leadership and promoting the concept that municipal and county boundaries need not be a barrier to good, sound policies and programs for addressing issues of common concern.

North Central Texas Council of Governments
William J. Pitstick Award

GUIDELINES

In 1993, the North Central Texas Council of Governments established the William J. Pitstick Award to be presented each year at NCTCOG's Annual General Assembly Meeting. This gesture honors the professional service of Bill Pitstick during his 26 years as NCTCOG's executive director. The award recognizes an individual who has demonstrated leadership and commitment to the concept of "regionalism" by promoting the concept that municipal and county boundaries need not be a barrier to good, sound policies and programs for addressing issues of common concern.

Who is Eligible?

Any current or former elected or appointed public official or any private sector individual (excluding current NCTCOG staff and Executive Board members) who has or presently works and lives in the 16-county North Central Texas region (Collin, Dallas, Denton, Ellis, Erath, Hood, Hunt, Johnson, Kaufman, Navarro, Palo Pinto, Parker, Rockwall, Somervell, Tarrant, and Wise counties).

Who Can Nominate?

Local government staff members, local elected officials, chamber of commerce officials, or interested citizens may nominate someone for this award (individuals may nominate themselves).

How Do I Nominate?

- Submit a one-page transmittal letter to identify the nominator(s) and the nominee (include title and employer) and to summarize the nominee's qualifications for the award.
- Complete the nomination form. To be qualified, nominations must be submitted on this form or a facsimile thereof. Please use the additional comments page to provide specific information relative to the nominee's leadership in the promotion of regional cooperation. Please provide additional information beyond solely a resume.

Selection Criteria

Applicants will be judged on their:

- Demonstrated leadership and commitment to the concept of "regionalism"
- Promotion of the concept that municipal and county boundaries need not be a barrier to good, sound policies and programs for addressing issues of common concern
- Promotion of coordination and cooperation among citizens and local elected officials in a continuing effort to solve regional problems

Nomination Deadline

THE DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS IS MAY 17, 2024
